

Keo, My suitcase

There's a place in my mind, where I'm already gone
It's a world that I never seen before
Put my hand throw the clouds to block the sun
Turn off the lights and lock the door
All of my memories, all of my mistakes
I'm gonna put them into my suitcase
All of my dreams and all of my heart and
Put them together, fill in my suitcase
Say goodbye to the walls that you call home
Take the only rule to leave in town, see you around
Keep you're eyes on the titles of lines the head
Don't be afraid to leave the ground, but don't look down
All of my memories, all of my mistakes
I'm gonna put them into my suitcase
All of my dreams and all of my heart and
Put them together, fill in my suitcase
Ohh I'm so tired of all this pretending, it's never ending
Ohh this time I'm ready for the new beginning
All of my memories, all of my mistakes
I'm gonna put them into my suitcase
All of my dreams and all of my heart and
Put them together, fill in my suitcase
All of my memories, all of my mistakes
I'm gonna put them into my suitcase
All of my dreams and all of my heart and
Put them together, fill in my suitcase
