

Kerli, Strange Boy

You should never leave me home alone
You should never leave me home alone
Heaven knows where I might wanna go
When you ask if you could be my man
I say honey, thank you, come again
That's why you like it

Strange boy
Innocent
You're here
Magnificent
Strange boy
Innocent
You're here
Magnificent

Should have told you 'bout the way I choose
Everything that we are gonna do
Everything that we are going through
Just how you like it

Strange boy
Innocent
You're here
Magnificent
Strange boy
Innocent
You're here
Magnificent

Baby don't you realize
I'm not another foolish sacrifice
Oh no, no, no
You're waiting for the world to pass you by
Living in a state of compromise
No, no, no, no
No, no, no
