

Kernaghan Tania, Trouble

Slept through the alarm got out the wrong side of the bed
Missed the bus 'cause I was running late
When I finally got to work the boss was waiting there
He had that firing look upon his face

CHORUS

I'm in trouble again
Seems to be my only friend
The chips are down I can't pretend
Looks like I'm in trouble again
My boyfriend dropped around with a brand new set of wheels
I asked if I could take it for a cruise
I never saw the truck that was backing down the drive
I don't know how I'm gonna break the news

CHORUS

Landlord's on my back got his hand out for the rent
Said that eh won't wait another week
I've used the best excuses I've tried every trick
Now he's at the door and turning up the heat

CHORUS

Look out here comes trouble
Looks like I'm in trouble again
