

Kesha, Hate Me Harder

Congratulations
You caught me doing some dumb shit again
That's what I do
Yeah that's what I do
I've graduated
From caring about your opinions
Tell you the truth babe
I'll never know that you existed

You saying that I'm over,
You say I'm a has been
You say I look older
Nobody was asking
Luckily the jokes on you

So if hating me helps you love yourself
Do your worst baby gimme hell
Hate me harder
Hate me harder
There's nothing left that I haven't heard
And I can take it so make it hurt
Hate me harder
Hate me harder

Isn't it funny
You're spending all that time and energy
Wasted on me
It's so flattering
You say I look like I
Just crawled out of a trash can
You say I'm obnoxious
Nobody was asking
Luckily the jokes on you

So if hating me helps you love yourself
Do your worst baby gimme hell
Hate me harder
Hate me harder
There's nothing left that i haven't heard
And I can take it so make it hurt
Hate me harder
Hate me harder

Again and again and again I'll keep saying over again
I been there, I've done it, I've lived it, I've fucked it, I'd do it all over again
I'll take it I'll take it I'll take it I'll take it I already know that I can Already know I can

Hate me
Hate me or you love me
It's really all about you
It's really not about me

Hate me
Hate me or you love me
You just keep on talking
Talking all about me
