

keshi, WESTSIDE

Just don't let me go
Swear you'll keep me close
When I'm flying to the Westside
When I catch another red eye
Just don't let me go
Swear you'll keep me close
When I'm flying to the Westside
When I catch another red eye

You need to weigh your options
All you do is talk about
The dream or whatchucallit?
Is it everything you wanted?
Is it big enough for the two of us?
What's a couple more, maybe two of us?
Am I big enough for the two of us?
Is it room enough, is it room enough?

But I can't stop time, I tried to
It just goes past and I can't seem to catch it
No, I can't seem, no, I can't
And I can't slow down, I tried to
I move too fast and I just end up crashing
Na na na na

Just don't let me go
Swear you'll keep me close
When I'm flying to the Westside
When I catch another red eye
Just don't let me go
Swear you'll keep me close
When I'm flying to the Westside
When I catch another red eye

So where the fuck you been?
And where you think you goin'?
Is leaving you a sin or not?
Am I better never knowing
Where the fuck is home? Where the fuck I'm goin'?
Where the fuck my friends? Fuck I'm waiting for?
Think it's time to go, think it's time to call you
Think it's time to go, think it's time to call you

But I can't stop time, I tried to
It just goes past and I can't seem to catch it
No, I can't seem, no, I can't
And I can't slow down, I tried to
I move too fast and I just end up crashing
Na na na na

Just don't let me go
Swear you'll keep me close
When I'm flying to the Westside
When I catch another red eye
Just don't let me go
Swear you'll keep me close
When I'm flying to the Westside
When I catch another red eye
