

Kevin Ayers, Guru Banana

Whos the one with the grin on his face
Says he's gonna save the human race
He laughs a lot as he climbs to fame
Whats his name

Guru Banana

That's me and I'll show you the light
I've got the answers and they're all right
I'm divine and you can be the same
Whats my name

Guru Banana
Guru Banana
Guru Banana
Oh you rude banana
What's my name
Guru banana

Now gather round and hear my song
If you think your life is going wrong
Come to me and I'll take the blame
Just call my name

Guru Banana
Grab your partners swing around
Dance along to my different sound
You think it's new but it's just the same
Now sock it to me once again Guru Banana. Guru Banana

Dance along to my different sound
