

Kevin Drew, Backed Out On The...

You thought you were leaving, temporary grieving
You backed out on the cocks
If they wanna love you make sure they fuck you
You backed out on the cocks

You think it's the season, temporary treason
You backed out on the cocks
They wanna hunt you, make sure they love to
You backed out on the cocks

Everyone can write this song
But they can't write you and me
Everyone can write this song
But they can't write you and me

If the lies they don't fit ya better trade some spit ya
You backed out on the cocks

Time is a leaver, thought she was a stealer
You backed out on the cocks

Everyone can write this song
But they can't write you and me
Everyone can write this song
But they can't write you and me
