

Kevin Fowler, All The Tequilla In Tijuana

I can't even lie
I won't even try
To tell you that I'm the perfect man Cause in the past I've been known To tie one on When I go out with my friends but lately all this drinking's just been bringing me down Been looking for salvation but all I've found is chorus

All the Tequilla in Tijuana Won't help me feel oh any stronger
I know it won't help but I'm gonna try going down to Mexico and drinking 'em dry here I go

Well I ain't gone a day since you gone away without drinking a few And Blaming it on you couldn't lie to myself or to anyone else and say that I'm doing fine another shot of courage cant drink you off my mind is there a message in this bottle that I can't find cause chorus X 2

All the tequilla in Tijuana it's bringing me down got me feeling like I'm gonna die yeah it's bringing me down got me feeling like I'm gonna die oh it's bringing me down got me feeling like I'm gonna die
