

Kevin McDermott, Funny Way To Walk

The lion and the lamb lay down together
But the lamb didn't get much sleep
Working from above were birds of a feather
But the promise wasn't his to keep

If this is funny I hope you find it satisfying
Though just the cabaret don't stop me from trying

I can't hear you
If you're yelling at me
I can't hear you
If you talk
If you're moving in mysterious ways
That's just a funny way to walk (x2)

Everybody grab a hand and love one another
And dance underneath the stars
And hope against hope where half the folk
???

If this is funny I hope you find it satisfying
Though just the cabaret don't stop me from trying

I can't hear you
If you're yelling at me
I can't hear you
If you talk
If you're moving in mysterious ways
That's just a funny way to walk

I can't hear you
If you're yelling at me
I can't hear you
If you talk
If you're moving in mysterious ways
That's just a funny way, a funny way, a funny way to walk

The lion and the lamb lay down together
But the lamb didn't get much sleep
Working from above were birds of a feather
But the promise wasn't his to keep

I can't hear you
I can't hear you
I can't hear you
If you talk

I can't hear you
I can't hear you, no no no
