

Kevin Seconds, Ugly Mouth

I made a good move yesterday
Despite all the bad ones I have made
And you need something, you deserve to be courted, to be heard

Don't stop at yourself
Take a kick tonight
It's free don't quit being angry
When you turn away from me
Don't think
Just because I've got a bigger mouth than you
Don't believe a word this ugly mouth
Is telling you
Is telling you

And I can tell you've seen enough
Thank god I never call your bluff
You've been so big despite it all
Sometimes I wish I was as tall
