

Kevin Seconds, Yesteryear

Except for the dent it left
I'd never remember it
Pretend it was bigger than
The Washington Monument

I mean it now
I meant it yesterday
But it won't go
No, it won't go away
I mean it here
I meant it yesterday
And answer I can never make more clear

It's tougher for some of us
As we wait here for the bus
Who can you love
Can you trust?
I can't even make a fuss
