

Keyshia Cole, Thought You Had My Back

oohh, heyy, hmmm

every girls gotta go thru it, and every mans gotta go thru it its this thing called love hmm, listen to me now, listen to me i still remember the day, that u said u was a bad boy man i shoulda listened, when u said u was a bad boy (bad boy) cuz u took control of me i thought u would change for me everythings different now, reminscing aint the same boy (same boy) how i let you come, and hurt me like this boy (this boy) im over now, i wanna get away but your forcin me to stay

((CHORUS))
oohh, i thought u had my back this time (this time) but man im wrong this time (this time)
its a thing called
thought u had my back
its a thing called love

((v.2))
i loved your free ways, but your ways hurt me bad boy hurt me so bad, why u wanna see me sad boy im tired of cryin over you but i miss you so much i dont know what to do it seems that i gotta move on, live life without you but everytime someone comes around to talk about you i get feelings inside again i wanna be right back by your side again

(CHORUS)
oohh, i thought u had my back this time but man im wrong this time

ooh, ooh, ooooh
you got me (yeah)
((repeat 3x))
and i dont know what to do oohh, i thought you had my back oohh, im so wrong, im so wrong love, ohh love,

nothin in my heart,

i ever loved so long, i loved so much i thought you had my back

((spoken))

yeah

its all good tho, sometimes in life, u know situations come your way you just gotta make good decisions man u know, you gotta know your focus in life and if love is your focus, then man, pay attention

((repeat chorus))
