

Keyshia Cole, Trifflin'

I told my cousin if you called to tell you im not home cause all the things you do to me you know your wrong, wrong, wrong i dont know why i let three years pass by without letting you go but i gotta move on cause your wrong on cause im gone on im moving on i know you thought that i wouldnt leave you ththought that i wouldnt go because i kept pagin you but that was to let you kno that
your trifflin
for that night
got me up all night
but i knew you wernt coming home no more wondering if your ok
and no more wondering if you been cheating on me you say you dont but i kno you do so whos the one lying to who i can barely tell ya baby dont wanna see ya face cause the games you play you got me going crazy i kno you thought i wouldnt leave thought that i wouldnt go
for that nice had me up all nite
so stay the fuck out my life!!
