

Kieran Goss, Lucille

It's a never ending story
It's a way to make amends
In a hail of blaze and glory
We were lovers to the end
Now I'm trying to remember
And I'm trying to forget
And the moment I surrender
Then the deeper my regret

Lucille, please say that I'm the one
Lucille, forgive the wrong I've done
Lucille, I promise to be true
Lucille, I give my heart to you
Lucille

Will we walk again together
In the shadow of the trees
Did I follow you forever
Just to fall down on my knees
Now it's easy to remember
Seems I never can forget
And the moment you surrender
Then I know my heart is set
