

Kiesza, Dearly Beloved

I'm lost, so lost trying to find a way
To you been so long since you tempted me
So sure the way that I feel
Oh it's got to be for real

Suffocating love I need to escape
I can barely breath in this empty space
I need you to take me before I fade away

For you I will fall
For you I would lose it all
For you great or small
Dearly beloved anything that you want
Anything that you want

Dearly beloved

Been rough
So rough wondering what you want
With me
Been so tough everyday that you're gone
While I fight the way that I feel
Oh it's got to be for real

Suffocating love I need to escape
I can barely breath in this empty space
I need you to take me before I fade away

For you I will fall
For you I would lose it all
For you great or small
Dearly beloved anything that you want

Anything that you want
I will make it true
Because I'd rather drown in a sea of you
Than to drift away in the empty truth

Dearly Beloved

For you I will fall
For you I would lose it all
For you great or small
Dearly beloved anything that you want
For you
Anything that you want
For you
Dearly beloved anything that you want
Anything that you want
