

Killer, Just Fine

Free love

I came so close to understanding everything
I understood when you said you don't need a thing
And now you have to leave, be rude and soldier off
You have to make me feel like I was not enough

Don't be an x-file man
'Cause you'll be just fine
Don't be so hard on yourself
'Cause you'll be just fine

I went so close to this unbelievable denial
I understood the mood but I don't live to die
