

Killing Heidi, Katrina

Katrina knows where the dollies go
To the dark places in the garden
And Katrina feels with the edge of the knife
Through the fog that cuts her open

She don't cry
She only smiles
Keep on smiling, you get pardoned
ohoh pardoned ohoh

Gone too far. The dollies cry
Turn back now or there's no hope for you
But Katrina laughs because Katrina knows
Where all the dollies go

She don't cry
She only smiles
Keep on smiling you'll get pardoned
ohoh pardoned ohoh
