

KillRadio, Ad Jam

They live and die by images so lets exploit back
Flip and reverse it watch the audience attack
They've got the power, we've got the paint
Do the ad jam baby let me show you the way.

Spotlight on a lie, call it center stage
Brands responsible for the facades they create
And plaster in our minds, of peaceful happy times
Let's kick reality, peel back the surface we will find.
A hidden message, just corporate h (heroin)
It's actuality so watch the minds we can save.

Everybody yell, Just do it. Everybody yell, Just do it.
Everyone, everyone, everyone, do the ad jam with me.

Jammin' on the subway, jam' on the street
Jammin on the skyline, or anywhere in between
We've got to do it for ourselves,
We've got to do it for ourselves and no one else.
That's what I said, you know it's true,
When we be bustin' lyrics man it's gotta be the truth
Gotta be the truth man, that's all you knew
Do the Ad Jam, so you got somethin' to prove.

Everybody yell, Just do it. Everybody yell, Just do it.
Everyone, everyone, everyone, do the ad jam with me. With me.
Everybody yell, Just do it. Everybody yell, Just do it.
Everybody yell, do the ad jam with me. Do the ad jam with me.

Out into the cities, out into the parks
The ad jams now in session adding truth upon the lies
We've got to do it for ourselves,
We've got to do it for ourselves, and no one else.

Everyone, everyone, everyone, do the ad jam with me.
Everybody yell, Just do it. Everybody yell, Just do it.
Everybody yell, do the ad jam with me. Do the ad jam with me.
