

Kim Chandler, Forever Blue

Out where white horses fly
Sirens call from far
Long ships gather to light the way
A traveller's guiding star

Be still, hear the ancient word
Time moves ever on
Tomorrow welcomes a season's change
Like winter's song begun

The Forever Blue is calling
Deeper, the endless blue
Like sailors and dreamers
Falling, falling...

Ride on white horses
Sail on the wind
Child of the Sea, forever blue
Be ever moving
Live wild and free
Child of the Sea, forever true, forever blue

Someday, from a distant shore
Sailors all return
Loved ones waiting to lead the way
Leave all your lanterns burn

The Forever Blue is calling
Deeper, the endless blue
Like sailors and dreamers
Falling, falling...

Ride on white horses
Sail on the wind
Child of the Sea, forever blue
Be ever moving
Live wild and free
Child of the Sea, forever blue

Ride on white horses
Sail on the wind
Child of the Sea, forever blue.
