

Kim Wilde, Breakin' Away

Written by T. Ackerman, M. Percy & T. Lever

Breakin' away

Breakin' away

It's hard leaving

Walking away from someone just to start again

We are ever needing

Keeping that someone to care just to give us strength

So as life changes with every day

We got to move forward

There's got to be a better way

Start over with every chance

I will be there

Now I'm breakin' away (breakin' away)

All I needed was time and room to grow

I got something to say (breakin' away)

Now I know I can make it on my own

Now I'm breakin'away (Yeah, Yeah)

It's hard giving

Giving out all that you've got when there's no return

When you find you're living

Living for everyone else there's so much to learn

So as life changes with every day

We got to move forward

There's got to be a better way

Start over with every chance

I will be there

Now I'm breakin' away (breakin' away)

All I needed was time and room to grow

I got something to say (breakin' away)

Now I know I can make it on my own

Now I'm breakin'away (Yeah, Yeah)

Seems like I've waited

Seems like it's taken forever (just to break free)

It feels like I've wasted my life

Now that we're not together.
