

Kim Wilde, Just Another Guy

Written by ricky & amp; marty wilde

Wow billy what a day
Never thought of seeing you here
Funny how it goes
Never thought I'd see you fall
I heard you're down on luck
And now I can see it all

Judy took a train
Judy took a train to nowhere
Weeping on a phone
Never to receive a call
So you remember well
Now I don't need you at all

You're just another guy
With just another lie
You're just another guy
With just another lie
I've been around too long

Hit me like a shot

When he sent your heart to nowhere
It really is a shame
You shouldn't let your big heart show
But then it's no big deal
Moving around it I know

You're just another guy
With just another lie
You're just another guy
With just another lie
I've been around too long

Gotta say goodbye
Gotta catch a train to nowhere
I didn't wanna lie
I didn't mean to come on strong
But then it's no big scene
Hanging around...

You're just another guy
With just another lie
You're just another guy
With just another lie
