

Kim Wilde, Loving You

Written by kim & ricky wilde

You - you've known that right from the start
Like - like a caress in my heart
There's a whisper in the morning flowing from the sea
It's saying this is the night to be what you wanna be

And I wanna be with you
And touch in the way lovers do
Though we've only known each other for just a day
You make it easy for me to say what I'm gonna say

I wanna be loved by you
Is there anything else I can do
I wanna be kissed by you
Wanna spend all the night loving you

A kiss is the best place to start

As words disappear in the dark
I can hear the words you're saying, the words are few
'cos we don't need any words to do what we're gonna do

I wanna be loved by you
Is there anything else I can do
I wanna be kissed by you
Wanna spend all the night loving you

I wanna be loved by you
Is there anything else I can do
I wanna be kissed by you
Wanna spend all the night loving you

Wanna be kissed by you
Wanna spend all the night loving you
Loving you
