

Kim Wilde, Words Fell Down

Written by Ricky & Marty Wilde

I wake up in the morning, looking for reaction

Then I see your faces, only for fraction

Did you hurt my feelings ? You just nailed me to the wall

Never say you're sorry, never show emotion

Never show a good hand, never give a notion

Don't you feel it's obscene ? Do you feel a thing at all ?

Chorus:

'Cos you come right back with the same old story

Words fell down

Words fell down

You walk right back to the sound of glory

Words fell down

Words fell down

Oh, oh, oh, it's so helpless

Oh, oh, oh, it's so helpless, it's so helpless

Always a deceiver, never any answers

Living in the shadows, taking any chances

When you get a good line, come and talk in to my face

Chorus

You fight right back with the same reaction

Words fell down

Words fell down

The same old show with the same old caption

Words fell down

Words fell down

Oh, oh, oh, it's so helpless

Oh, oh, oh, it's so helpless, it's so helpless
