

Kimya Dawson, Nobody's Hippie

i'm nobody's hippie and the best medicine is back on track with his taco bell girlfriend maybe i'll listen to back in black again and write more letters that i'll never send and pretend i'm going for a drive and pretend i'm driving on I-5 and pretend i'm drinking five alive and soon you will arrive and say you're my hippie i'll say i'm your hippie we'll giggle and cuddle and always be happy we'll never go crazy we'll never feel crappy we'll never feel crappy we'll always be happy and you and me will be whirlwinds of danger we'll crash on our bikes and take candy from strangers i'll sleep on the top bunk you'll sleep in the manger the odds always upstage the wager i'm nobody's hippie and the best medicine's back in the sack with his burger king girlfriend maybe i'll play tekken 2 all alone again hold down select and then laff at big heads so please be my hippie i'm nobody's hippie we'll smoke some patchouli our lives will be trippy i try to be mallory but i'm still skippy we'll freebase tamari like pat benatari

is back on track with his taco bell girlfriend
