

Kinesis, ...And They Obey

Cross your fingers and hope for the best
Right wing, left wing - they're meaningless
Represent the way things really are
Drug addiction - a state run massacre
Celebrity is all you believe
Hyped up visions of all you crave

Chorus

NAFTA ain't all liberty
Wealth the price for equality
German wasn't that far away
...and they obey

Born free, trapped by poverty
Loaded with chains, reduced to misery
Understand; this is not a dream
Blond hair, blue eyes are rarely seen
Equality is all we believe
Your blindness fuels your apathy

NAFTA ain't all liberty
Wealth the price for equality
...and they obey
