

Kinesis, Everything Destroys Itself

Symbolic wreck, a crucifix
I've opened up to something new
I'm born again, but it's so stale
A lovely scenic view
Just another empty threat
A hoax gone wrong
Your mind still bleeds
You are the victim
And the disease
And we're so sick of you
We accuse your perfect vision
We accuse your flashing fictions
Why does truth get reduced to nothing?
Everything destroys itself!
Your fake idol, a comatose
A plastic mess on the TV
Just like the cross, just more corrupt
What is morality?
Just another useless plea
Block out the facts, remove the smiles
You're feeling used? destroy yourself!
And then watch the denial
We accuse your perfect vision
We accuse your flashing fictions
Why does truth get reduced to nothing?
Everything destroys itself!
We accuse your perfect vision
We accuse your flashing fictions
Why does truth get reduced to nothing?
Everything destroys itself!
We accuse your television
We accuse your flashing fictions
Why does truth get reduced to nothing?
Everything destroys itself!
