

Kinesis, Forever Reeling

To look and see no life, mind dead nothing remains,
but the trick of a hearts,
and a pressure graident,

Forever reeling from that empty look you gave,
it was never meant to end this way,

To look and see no life,
diginty washed away,
savataged this decline, no life no hope let go.

Forever reeling from that empty look you gave,
it was never meant to end this way.
Forever reeling from taht empty look you gave,
it was never meant to end this way.
cold now to feeling as the light goes out.
