King Diamond, A Dangerous Meeting

Tonight the circle is meeting again Who will be the first to fall in trance In here nobody is sensing the rain Tonight a spirit will glance

So as they're approaching ghostly hour Seven people here are joining hands They think they know the spirit to appear Contact, the table starts to dance

Time is standing still It's a dangerous meeting They're gonna get themselves killed

Solo: m.d.

Tonight the circle is broken forever

Seven people dead within a trance In here nobody is sensing the rain Tonight seven souls are reaching hell

Time was standing still The meeting is over Their journey is on

Oh, they should have known Not to play with the powers of hell

Some people have lost their way Some people have lost their mind
