

King Diamond, Masquerade of Madness

Masquerade of Madness

There is a girl in misery
And in sanity
Painting figures on her walls
Those voodoo dolls

I come to say goodbye
I'll take you down to #9
Masquerade of Madness
Masquerade of Sadness
Madness

There is a masque for all the dead
And a masque for pain
You gotta leave your mind behind
Don't go insane

I come to say goodbye
I'll take you down to #9
Masquerade of Madness
Masquerade of Sadness
Madness

...And when they come for you tonight
Darkness of the mind
Keep on the masque they made for you
Only speak inside

I come to say goodbye
I'll take you down to #9
Masquerade of Madness
Masquerade of Sadness
Madness
