

King Diamond, The Floating Head

[La Rocque / Diamond]

Im in the hallway on the floor, I cannot stand the Dark no more
Oh Im lighting candles everywhere
I try to keep the darkness out of here

Inside my mind nightmares are turning real
Oh inside my mind I cant control how I feel

Now Im on the second floor, I cannot stand the Dark no more
Still Im lighting candles everywhere
I try to stay awake out of fear

Inside my mind nightmares are turning real
Oh inside my mind I cant control how I feel

Or what is real
For the pictures in red, they are still in my head
How can I believe in all of the things I see
When theres a Floating Head outside watching me

[Solo : Mike]

The Floating Head has disappeared, I got to get some water in my face
I turn towards the mirror on the wall
The little sink is filling up, the waters cold

Inside my mind nightmares are turning real
Oh inside my mind I cant control how I feel

Or what is real
For behind me is the wrinkled head of a woman whos dead
No body, just the head, strong hands around my neck
Forcing me under water, Im drowning
Ah Ah Ah I got to breathe
Ah Ah Ah Got to break free

[Solo : Andy]

Inside my mind nightmares are turning real
Oh inside my mind I cant control how I feel

Or what is real

[Chorus]
