

King Prawn, No Peace

Tonight this city won't know peace
Just broken glass and shattered dreams
And now I'm gonna take what's mine
It's just a symptom at that time

And the tension mounts in the city tonight
The tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight

Fear and confusion's all around
Nobody know which way to turn
There was a time when we would dread
But through this minefield now we tread

And the tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight

And the tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
Tension mounts in the city tonight
