

King's X, I Just Want To Live

I'm stepping outside again i'm afraid but it's wonderful i'm feeling the air again it feels cold but it's lovely i feel in touch with myself again i'm afraid but i'm wonderful 'cause i can stand on my own again and i can see that it's lovely i just wanna live
i just wanna live again i'm learning to cry again
i'm afraid but it's wonderful i'm taking time for myself again i feel some pain but i'm dealing
i just wanna live (stepping out let the new begin)
i just wanna live again (stepping out in the rain again) yeah i just wanna live (let it fall i can feel the wind)
i just wanna live again (stepping out by myself again) he's stepping outside it's a little bit scary but it's wonderful she's stepping outside
a little bit scary
