

King's X, Won't Turn Back

somewhere in my mind i won't forget it's hard to erase the bad times from my mind so much that i've done now i regret and there is no replacement for time it's foolishness when i repeat an act when before it only got me burned with help it's not hard to turn away but lessons can be hard to learn

i won't turn back
i won't turn back oh no oh no if i want to change then i must stop what i'm doing it's hard to desire the things that i despise i'm learning to take those ninety degree turns it's all about how i can change my life
