

Kingdom Come, Easy Talking Hardline got it all - everlasting sunshine can't recall - when I had a bad time something's wrong it's getting colder things have changed but it ain't over need a break - allowing all the changes

[Chorus:]

easy talking hardline showing off your sharp mind putting on a sad smile doesn't help - never mind take a walk in my shoes facing all the bad news all you'd see are stop signs everlasting red lights coming down - taking on a hard way finding out - when to make the right play sticking to my own commitment gotta wait - there's gonna be a right time letting go - believing in a good cause lot of times I've almost dropped it my inner voice made me fight it the call is out - the mission is believing
