

Kingdom Come, Gonna Change

I've seen a million girls before
A wanting I just can't ignore
Keep on searching, far too much
Always craving, women's touch

I feel attraction all the time
Keep giving out a million signs
Been deceiving, no regards
Kept misleading, many hearts

[Chorus:]
Run down, feeling so strange
Hold out, I'm gonna change
Don't cry and you will see
No lies, you're all I need

(Can you hear me?)

Really want to see you smile
I would hate to watch you cry
