Kingdom Come, Gonna Change

I've seen a million girls before A wanting I just can't ignore Keep on searching, far too much Always craving, women's touch

I feel attraction all the time Keep giving out a million signs Been deceiving, no regards Kept misleading, many hearts

[Chorus:] Run down, feeling so strange Hold out, I'm gonna change Don't cry and you will see No lies, you're all I need

(Can you hear me?)

Really want to see you smile I would hate to watch you cry
