

Kingdom Come, Rather Be On My Own

We telling lies
Making us cry
I have tried to find out why

We've got to win
We can't give in
I'm about to lose my mind

[Chorus:]
I wish I knew, just what to do
But until than,
I much rather be on my own
How long I don't know
Letting time go by

Things we have said
We do regret
We should all be thinking twice

Before we talk
Before we walk
Into someone else's life

[Chorus 2:]
Carry our sound, gentle as clouds
But until than
I much rather be on my own
How long I don't know
Letting time go by

Heaven's starting to fade
Soon it may be too late
Can we change in time?
