

Kino, Shut The Door Behind Me

They say they cannot afford any risk
They got a home, there is light there
And I do know who of us is right
Rain's waiting for me outside
Dinner's waiting for them at their home

CHORUS

Shut the door behind me, I'm leaving
And if you are suddenly bored by your soothing light
We've got a place for you: there's enough rain for everybody
Look at the watch, look at the portrait on the wall
Listen and there behind your window you'll hear our laughter
