

Kip Winger, Another Way

Another prostitute
Another killer
Goes down in history
Someone's hero
Another temptation
I know the crime
I know the cover-up
I know the prison

It's everywhere I look
It's everything I see
Every time I think about it
I know I'm as guilty
It is ever so much
You've got to turn away
Sometimes I can't imagine
Going on another day
But I don't stop
Believing there's another way

Another nightmare
Another day away
Another pill
Another tears falls
Another denial
See it through your fake smile
Inside your cardboard house ain't so pretty

It's everywhere I look
It's everything I see
Every time I think about it
I know I'm as guilty
It's in everybody's face
Every handshake
Seems a lovely invitation
But I'd rather walk away
But I don't stop
Believing there's another way

Another accident
Didn't feel the danger
Living on a thrill
Somebody's hero
Another kid missin'
He was unforgiven
Out of his glory
Another tears falls
It's everywhere I look
It's everything I see
Every time I think about it
I know I'm as guilty
It is ever so much
You've got to turn away
Sometimes I can't imagine
Going on another day
But I don't stop believin'
Don't stop believin'
I can't stop believin'
There's another way
