

Kiros, Break Me

Your failure was decided in your head before you even tried
before you even tried
a funeral was held for all your dreams before you let them die before you let them die

So break me
And shut me down
Everything you say means nothing
You take back
The sweetest lies
Everything you say means nothing now

And there's no medicine that could ever make you feel alive you'll never feel alive
And there's no remedy or therapy to replace what's inside

So tell me what's inside
I can't help but think that this is all just such a waste
Watch the pain and anger in your eyes as it's slowly erased
So

So break me and shut me down
Everything you say means nothing
You take back the sweetest lies
Everything you say means nothing now

You let me down
You let me down
You let me down

You break me and shut me down
Everything you say means nothing
you take back the sweetest lies
everything you say means nothing
So break me and shut me down everything you say means nothing
So take back the sweetest lie
Everything you say means nothing now
