

Kirsty Hawkshaw, Inner Sanctum

Infinity... infinity?

Sky cold, skin blue, when I wake

So swim into essential, you've swam a thousand voids

Why is eternity forever? Why is eternity forever?

Skin screams bear me again, inner sanctum?

We watch from dry land

While waves destroy our theories

So swim into essential, you've swam a thousand voids

Why is eternity forever? the horizon deceives

Some say 'their ships above sea' sailing on winds of belief

Why waves destroy our theories bear me again

Sky cold, skin blue, when I wake to worship water

Sky cold, skin blue, when I wake, infinity waving

Sky cold, skin blue, when I wake, infinity waving
