

Kittie, Eyes Wide Open

Ascend
The mountain
The edge of sanity
My vision is in focus
And my eyes deceive me not
With the heat of 1000 suns
The torch is lit for me
The darkness set ablaze
Wisdom in clarity

And I unmask the beast
I was blind
But now I see

Eyes wide open
Nothing is for free
Eyes wide open
(And now I see)
Eyes wide open
Show your true face to me
I was blind but now I see

I peer behind the looking glass
The truth of what once was has set me free
With the sting of 1000 lies
The words you spoke to me
A beast you cannot tame
We rise above the flames

And I unmask the beast
I was blind
But now I see

Eyes wide open
Nothing is for free
Eyes wide open
(And now I see)
Eyes wide open
Show your true face to me
I was blind but now I see

Second sight has set me free
I was blind but now I see

Eyes wide open
Nothing is for free
Eyes wide open
(And now I see)
Eyes wide open
Show your true face to me
I was blind but now I see

Eyes wide open
Eyes wide open
Eyes wide open
Eyes wide open
