

Kjartan Salvesen, In The End

So many times I tried to understand
This kind of love seems to never end
No matter what we are up against
There's a way to love again there's a way through

So many times I tried to figure out
What understanding is all about
But when I look at you I realise
There's a way to hear the heart there's a way through

In the end we forgive and we forget
We'll be standing strong again
In the end there's no denying
You'll be in my arms again

There's been a lot of times I've said too much
When all I wanted was in your touch
But when I look at you I see the light
And the way to be as one, there's a way through

In the end we forgive and we forget
We'll be standing strong again
In the end there's no denying
You'll be in my arms again

I will love you, never leave you
Can't you see that I'm always by your side?
When you lose all, I'll come running
Just believe in love

In the end we forgive and we forget
In the end, in the end

In the end we forgive and we forget
We'll be standing strong again
In the end there's no denying
You'll be in my arms again

We forgive and we forget
We'll be standing strong again
In the end there's no denying
You'll be in my arms again

Again...
