

Klaatu, Older

""Older""
(Dee Long)

Older, it seems like each day you get older
And each day the world becomes colder
In a cynical way.

Time, do you feel like you missed your time?
I feel like I've missed mine.
An I'm losin' my way.

I think it's time you realized
For I can see it in your eyes
You seem convinced that you will
Live forever!

Over, I feel like my life has blown over
I keep lookin' over my shoulder
And seein' nothin' but grey!

It's crime, don't seem like such a crime
I wish I had more time
But I'm driftin' away.

Older, you see it's like I told ya
You've gained the right to grow older
By livin' today.

I think it's time you realized
For I can see it in your eyes
You seem convinced that you will
Live forever!
