

Klingande, Somewhere New (feat. M-22)

Yesterday is not today, I know that I won't get another chance
No looking back, the time is gone, we turned the page, the past is in the past
Why don't we stand up to a love we know will last?
Coz if we don't start now then we might not get the chance

Hideaway the sunlight
Finding, you can be my sunshine
Trying to become one
I found it all in you
So just let me know

We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere

Yesterday seems far away, I know that we are never turning back
We chased the days and played away and the past is in the past
