

Klinger, Acne And Peroxide

So we start at 2 a.m.
I've never seen you before
But I see you now and then
As you tear up the dance floor
The bartender used to be a teenage popstar
And you get your drinks for free like Billy Joel does

Don't go just coz they're playing something slow
I know I'll spend the night alone
Coz I'm acne and peroxide
And you're a dream, dream

So we watch you from the wings
A woman of action
And you show us how to dance
To Belle and Sebastian
And it's over long before it ever got started
And if I could call it love, it's unrequited

Don't go just coz they're playing something slow
I know I'll spend the night alone
Coz I'm acne and peroxide
And you're a dream, dream

And you're a dream, dream
And you're a dream, dream
And you're a dream

Don't go just coz they're playing something slow
I know I'll spend the night alone
Coz I'm acne and peroxide
I'm acne and peroxide
And you're batting for the wrong side

And you're a dream, dream
And you're a dream, dream
And you're a dream, dream
And you're a dream, dream
And you're a dream, dream
And you're a dream, dream
