

KO KO, So Strange

Who cares about my name
Who cares that we're not there
Who cares if I have given up
Who cares that I'm a man who knows what he wants

I've tried to, I've tried to run
To free my soul
Wide open, wide open space
Can be so cruel

I'm at home, but I cant sleep
All my pictures look so strange
When did I shave my head to fit in
When the girls come in, and I don't know their name

I've tried to, I've tried to run
To free my soul
Wide open, wide open space
Can be so cruel
