

Koffin Kats, Chainsaw Massacre

Chainsaw running in the dead of the night
Im cutting up some bodies
A dinner delight
I hit them with a hammer, watch them die
Its chainsaw massacre time tonight

Where you gonna run to
Where you gonna hide
You're hanging from a hook, Ill skin you alive
And are you gonna scream for me as I watch you die?

Finger licking good, baby give me some skin
Tear it off your arm
I might let you live
I feast upon the body for it isnt a sin
Open up the oven now and put yourself in

Where you gonna run to
Where you gonna hide
You're hanging from a hook, Ill skin you alive
And are you gonna scream for me as I watch you die?

I break your back
I pull out your spine
Im ripping off your fingernails two at a time
Im chewing on your ears wile you're alive
Gonna get me fresh meat tonight
