

Koffin Kats, V8 Nightmare

Devil's dragstrip '63
My car was tough and runnin' clean
Satan laughed and said I'll own your soul

His motor roared a hellish sound
Outran me when the flags went down
Lost the race I'm damned forevermore

In this V8 Nightmare
In this V8 Night-Nightmare
In this V8 Nightmare
Oh, in this V8 Nightmare

My fate was sealed mechanically
I'll drive this V8 endlessly
Afterlife is just a hell-bound road

The radio is Satan's laugh
Reminding me that I am dead
Never race the devil for your soul
