

Kooks, Give In

I want you
And you want me
And there's nothing stopping you
From kissing me
So I am tearing my hair out
Because I want you
Give in to your heart
Don't let him sell you out
Give in to your heart
I wont let you be sold out
I need you

Do you still want me?
There's nothing stopping us
From touching each other
Are you tearing your hair out?
Because I already have
Give in to your heart
Don't let your life be bought over
Give in to your heart
Don't let him sell you out
Him sell you out
Give in, give in, give in to me
